

Identification

Letter J: Abbygael

Level awarded

(The top end of) Level 2A

Reasons why this level, and not the level above or below

- an appropriate greeting is evident along with a conclusion
- a good attempt at an address and the date has been included
- the sentences tend to be short and Abbygael's ideas tend to jump about somewhat
- the overall purpose and organisation tend to be indicative of 2a
- the writing communicates meaning in a lively manner
- the spelling of many words is accurate but there are unexpected errors
- punctuation is accurate including the use of apostrophes
- the handwriting is legible and joined and shows a level of consistency
- she uses the word 'also' too frequently towards the end of the letter
- in the main she uses a simple range of vocabulary
