Letter G: Sam

Level awarded

Level 2B

Reasons why this level, and not the level above or below

- Sam included an appropriate greeting and conclusion
- the handwriting is legible although it is not joined
- ideas are expressed clearly through the use of simple vocabulary
- often there are interesting beginnings to sentences
- there are good attempts at spellings although the overall standard is a little erratic
- punctuation is largely accurate although there is an absence of commas e.g. in lists
- the style is quite colloquial although this can often be the case in a letter
