

A reveiw of the Christmas gift

I read the story of the Christmas gift and I thought the story was really upsetting when I read that the baby dies. I felt a bit like crying because you feel so sad when you hear that a little baby that has just been born dies. My favourite bit in the story was when the stranger came and made the baby come back to life it was like a miracle. I personally think that the stranger was Jesus.

By Jessica Broadhead, year six
Chowbent Primary School.

